Heavens heights are lower than low
Depths of oceans are a plain
Dimmest nights are brightest sunshine
Before You, our God!

If we call You King, You are Lord
If we say Lord, You are God
If we say You're God, You are more—
More than what we say!

Ah more than figures, unfigured
Beyond words and alphabets
You are God, You are King
More than what we say!

In millions, billions, gazillions
God the Alpha and Omega
You are more, even much
More than what we say!

And if we call You King, You are Lord
If we say Lord, You are God
If we say You're God, You are more—
More than what we say!

Oh words are scanty, tongues are weak
In capturing Who You are
You are God, You are King
More than what we say

O Most High, YAH, the Almighty
God, You're I AM THAT I AM
Still You're more, even much
More than what we say!
